

The Legislative Budget Office (LBO) is seeking to fill an Economist position as part of their tax expenditure evaluation team. This is a full-time benefits eligible position. The economist enjoys rewarding work applying statistical and econometric research methods to support the Minnesota Legislature in evaluating tax expenditure policies including, tax credits, tax exemptions, and preferential rates, among other tax incentives.

To ensure consideration, applications should be received by Tuesday, April 1, 2025. Interested applicants must submit a cover letter with their resume to the LBO Economist Search Committee at lbo@lbo.mn.gov or mail to LBO Economist Search Committee, Legislative Budget Office, 658 Cedar St., Centennial Building, 1st Floor, St. Paul, MN 55155. If you have specific questions, please contact Christian Larson at Christian.Larson@lbo.mn.gov.

The Economist position supports the Minnesota Legislature by contributing as an essential member of the LBO team through:

- Utilizing econometric and statistical analysis technics to identify the effectiveness and efficiency of tax expenditures.
- Developing research methods and using statistical and economic modeling software to estimate the fiscal and economic impacts of tax expenditures.
- Contributing to the development of written reports.
- Presenting research and findings as needed to support the work of the LBO.

The Legislative Budget Office will determine the starting salary based on the successful applicant's qualifications and experience. The full salary range for the Economist position is $91,996 to $166,048. The hiring range typically is between $91,996 and $110,000. The level offered will be based upon an assessment of the candidate's level of experience.

If you previously applied for the economist position with the LBO, you are eligible for the position and do not need to resubmit your materials to be considered.
