Open Meetings

- With limited exceptions, all meetings of public bodies must be open to the public
 - The public can attend open meetings
- Minnesota Supreme Court stated three purposes for the OML:
 - To prohibit actions taken at secret meetings
 - To assure the public's right to be informed
 - To give the public an opportunity to present its views to the public body
 - BUT the OML does not require public bodies to reserve time for public comment

What is a “meeting” subject to the law?

- Gatherings subject to the law
 - The “quorum rule” (Moberg v. Independent School District No. 281, 336 N.W.2d 510 (Minn. 1983).)
 1. Quorum (majority) or more of full public body, or quorum of any of the public body’s committees, subcommittees, etc. – and
 2. Quorum (majority) discusses, decides, or receives information as a group on issues relating to its official business
- Gatherings not subject to the law
 - Gatherings of less than a quorum of members
 - Chance or social
 - Training/team building activities so long as business is not discussed
- Keep in mind – public perception!

Types of Meetings

- Regular meetings
 - Schedule of meetings on file at primary office
- Special meetings
 - Any meeting not on the regular schedule
 - 3-day advance posting on website, including date, time, place, and meeting purpose
- Emergency meetings
 - Special meetings called because circumstances don't allow for a 3-day prior notice
 - Good faith effort to notify media that requested notice

Special Considerations

- Use of email
 - Avoid “discussion”
 - Advisory Opinion 09-020:
 - Public body did not comply with OML when exchanging certain email messages relating to official activities
 - One-way communication between the chair/staff and members of a public body is permissible, such as sending meeting materials via email to all board members, with no discussion or decision-making
- “Serial meetings”
 - Meetings of less than a quorum
 - Avoid public meetings to fashion agreement
 - Might be a violation

Closed Meetings

- Meetings can be closed only if required or permitted in the law
- All closed meetings must be recorded (attorney-client exception)
- No general “personnel exception” to close a meeting
- Statement on the record before closing a meeting
 - Legal authority to close the meeting
 - Describe what will be discussed

Meetings & Technology
